NAPSW Virtual Learning presents Reproductive Justice: The Whats and Whys of Reproductive

03:00 PM - 04:15 PM EST

education@napsw.org

We hope you will join us for our upcoming virtual learning opportunity presentation by Judith L. M. McCoyd (she/ her), PhD, LCSW (PA), QCSW. "People assume Reproductive Justice is a new framing of abortion rights - but it's much more. Loretta Ross and SisterSong challenged white feminists' focus on abortion rights and wove social justice and reproductive rights together. We will review the pillars of Reproductive Justice and consider their alignment with social work ethics and values, and their alignment with our perinatal context." This session is offered FREE for members and is $15 for non-members. Registration is required.

Continuing education hours for this session are pending approval by the National Association of Social Workers.
